Page 21 - From Breton Cove and Boston: Conversations with Josie Matheson Bredbury
ISSUE : Issue 56
Published by Ronald Caplan on 1991/1/1 chance to go home and get their dinner. Because the whole crowd that came to the church would go to dinner at these homes, round the old Presbyterian church. There were three churches that the minis? ter had to go to. There was the French River one. There was the Indian Brook one. And North River. So one Sunday he'd be out in North River. Then the elders would-- well, they'd have (services) in the old schoolhouse. Or if some people liked--if (for instance) it was at Indian Brook, a lot of the people would take the horse- and-buggy, especially in the summertime-- go up to the Indian Brook church. And if oftfieClam Whether you've got a wee bit of Scot in you or just a healthy respect for a good time, the summer of 1991 in Nova Scotia promises to be special. Because for only the fourth time ever, the International Gathering of the Clans will be held right here in Nova Scotia. Commencing with the official Opening in Halifax in June, a program of Scottish Gatherings and Activities will carry through the summer. So come to Nova Scotia the summer of 1991 and celebrate your Scottish heritage. Dancing on the Dock??, Halifax June 23 Amethyst Dancers Welcome to Ceilidh, Halifax June 26-28 ''f' Mabou Ceilidh, Mabou June 2"'-July 1 Mira Gala Festival, Marion Bridge June 28-July 7 • ?T>' Nova Scotia International Tattoo, Halifax July 1-7 f'* Gathering of the Clans and Fishermen's Regatta, Pugwash 'V Glendale Ceilidh Days, Glendale J; Maritime Old Time Fiddling Contest, Dartmouth July 'f/ Metro Halifax Scottish Festival and Highland Games, July 1 ilifax... Vf/Clan MacKay Ceilidh, Grand River f>* Scotia Highland Dancers in Concert, Antigonish Vf??'Whycocomagh Summer Festival, Whcocomagh ' • f''Judique-on-the-Floor Days, Judique '?f>' Antigonish Highland Games, Antigonish ' • ! • ' Milling Frolic and Square Dance, New Waterford '