

Page IBC - CBC Radio AdvertISSUE : Issue 4

Published by Ronald Caplan on 1973/5/1

CBC RADIO - 1140 ON THE DIAL - CBI SYDNEY We Take The Time... ..To Communicate 6:15-9:00 INFORMATION MORNING Gets the day going with the current concerns served direct to your breakfast table ...the latest news, weather and sports; special features of both local and far-flung interest; here-and-now interviews and succinct commentaries. Radio Noon A program just for you... town and country folk alike. A happy mixture of up-to-the minute information, news, consumer hints, weather, music, opinion and commentary. 12 Noon until 2 P.M. MAC TALLA AN' EILEAN 3:03 P.M. SATURDAY ISLAND ECHOES 9:13-Noon THIS COUNTRY IN THE MORNING Wonderfully good company, with unusual topics, interviews, impromptu contests and nuggets of knowledge, handled with warmth and humour by host Peter Gzowski. Dotted here and there with music and surprises. THE WORLD AT 8:00/9:00/6:00 Skilled CBC Radio news teams across the country offer immediate, accurate and fully comprehensive news reports. You can rely on it. 4:03-6 PM TRAVEL ON SHOW A truly Cape Breton "Down- Home" kind of program with host Brian Sutcliffe (he's the one with a smile in his voice). This show frequently provides a showcase for local talent and sometimes Brian talks with interesting people of our island. Every kind of good music prevails! Weekend Cross-Country Check-Up 6:10-8 P.M. SUNDAYS You're IT! Everything from pollution to unemployment, from love to liberty...that's Canada's only National open line radio show where you give your views and question a visiting expert. This is a new time for a popular program. Rosemary Hutchinson offers a lively and well-informed program of Gaelic music and stories. Radio lives! [F 10:03 to .Noon THIS COUNTRY IN THE MORNING The Saturday version • including selected "instant replays" of some of the extra-good weekday items and plenty of bright music. 1:15 to 2 MARITIME MAGAZINE Just that. A many-faceted magazine program, designed for and by Maritimers, with our concerns in mind. Quick-paced, and of interest to young and old alike.