

Page 7 - Willy Petrie, a Man who Finds WaterISSUE : Issue 6

Published by Ronald Caplan on 1973/12/1

her*it'm?'ht''b'';goL*?Sf!'?' 'V '' 5''* '''' '' '' ' P''* • Y hands toget? her. It might be my hand, but I could use my fingers. I can do it with the stick in ray fingers just the same as across my hand. can ao ix wirn tne stick m (Willy cut into the end of his alder stick and put in a coin. He said that the stlrk r'/?/?nv''''ri'??' v'' finding water, but that S'w it could fiSd money!-It could lo? in' fS'mnS!f S!??!''''. I'tu'''' '' 't- ''j'' S''5-' ' remember one time we were tr?- '' Ji,, ? ?'' ''-' ' P''* ''h? ''''y '' hs en' of itf it would go to my pocket. I said. There's no money m my pocket. I don't know why it's going to my pocket. So, It was no good anyway. It wouldn't work. Well, you remember them small fittle fivl SfH'trf''''-'i' now right down in one corner of my pocket there was one of them. I ?SS lfnLf'Lr?.??''? t?''- '' lj'''' '5''* '' '' ?'' j*- '''' I took that Sut, that was okay. Now I'll tell you something: If I got lost in the woods • there are seams like in the ground, perhaps about a foot wide or something. There's a dot of l'i ?i? 2 '?.U' f''-'''' '' silver-dust, dust you'd say, a dust of gold, a dust of sil- ver anci a dust nt mtrte'i' m''vo/i aii