well, we'd use the next one's lasts, if our feet were growing. But we went barefooted an awful lot. And my feet are just like my hands. I can do that with all my toes. (Spread them out like that.) There isn't a bunion, there isn't a callous, there isn't a com. (Were things ever seen in Forest Glen, un? usual things?) Yes, they used to see a lot of things. I'm psychic, myself. There's things that happened, as a child. When my JEather used to go away in the wintertime-- this was the very first I knew. We had a great big red collie dog. And you know, a dog in those days was one of the family. We thought so much of it. And he always-- this night he wouldn't come in. I slept with my mother and Maggie--you know, she was a baby at that time. And the dog started barking. And I said, "My father is coming home tonight." Now, we didn't know he was coming. We didn't hear. Probably got a chance and didn't know. Usually he would let us know. I said, "He's at the lower field right now." She said, "Oh, sshh--keep still, go to sleep." "He's at the upper field now." And we had a cold spring and a brook. The brook we used for every day and the cold spring we used to be drinking. And I said, "He's at the cold spring right now." After awhile I said, "He's at the brook now. And now," I said, "he's at the bam." I said, "He's stepping on the piazza." With that we heard the bang on the door. And I jumped out of bed and there was my father. Now that's the first I've ever. But I didn't think too much of it. Shortly after that, my brother Willie--we had a gun--you loaded it with a ramrod. What do you call it? A musket? And he was a great woodsman. So I'm upstairs one day. We were taught, one do the dishes and one go upstairs, make the beds, empty the chambers, do this and do that. And I'm upstairs and I'm in Willie's room. I'm making his bed. And I heard this terrible shot. It was right be? hind me. I went downstairs. And I said, "Where's Willie?" She said, "Willie went an hour ago." He had a string of rabbit snares set. "Well," I said, "I heard a shot." She said, "You didn't hear any shot--he took the gun with him." And there was no more said. Well, (another) brother came home--he was in the States. He was in Maine--and he brought Willie a .30-30 rifle. Some time after that, a few months or so, I'm up? stairs doing the same work. I'm making the bed. And this shot came up through the floor. And God, the bullet came right up behind me, through the floor. It was an accident. There was a bullet in the rifle and he didn't know it. He put his foot up like that on a chair, and put the gun up, and released the trigger. It went through the floor. The hole was still there when we left there. And I ran downstairs. And I told Mother--well, there was Willie had the rifle--"Well," I said, "that's the same thing I heard." But see, that was a warning of some kindo They call it psychic now. (What did they call it when you were small?) Ghosts. And people used to hear things. For instance, my mother, one morning she got up and she said, "My God, did you children hear that?" I said, "Hear what?" She said, "The whole mountain must have gave way--just on the other side of the brook--and slid down in? to the brook. I never heard such a racket," she said, "in my life. I can't describe it." And nobody heard ito So a neighbour OFFICIAL SUPPLIER TO JOHN CUNNINGHAM LTD. Draperies and Home Furnishings Jeux Canada Games '87nS5,s 602 GEORGE ST. *
