

Page 23 - Wildflowers of Cape BretonISSUE : Issue 1

Published by Ronald Caplan on 1972/10/31

WILDFLOWERS OF CAPE BRETON blespoon doses. It is also effective in cases of cramps convulsions, stomach spasms and the treatment of nervous com? plaints. The Highbush-Cranberry is the parent of " Cape Breton's MAGAZINE the cultivated Snowball Bush which is fre? quently found in lawns and gardens on Cape Breton, but bears no showy fruit. The white, fine-grained, flexible wood of the WRECK COVE CAPE BRETON Be sure that you receive every issue of Cape Breton's Magazine, Order a 6-issue subscription and as each issue comes out it will be mailed directly to your horae. Please send the next 6 issues of Cape Breton's Magazine to: Name Address Enclosed is a check money order: 4.50 on Cape Breton 5.00 in Canada 6.00 in the United States Cape Breton's Magazine would make a fine gift for a Cape Bretoner away from home. A subscription for her or him will send the next 6 issues as a gift from you. Please send the next 6 issues of Cape Breton's Magazine to: Address Enclosed is a check money order: 4.50 on Cape Breton 5.00 in Canada 6.00 in the United States Start with issue number one two. A gift frora_ Make Subscriptions to Cape Breton's Maga? zine your Christmas Gift this year. It lasts a long time and it's the gift of something that's really Cape Breton. And, you will help keep Cape Breton's Magazine alive. Let's face it: We'll never make it without your help. NOVA SCOTIA Edited & Published by Ronald Caplan branches is used for old-time toothbrushes and skewers. The berries turn black in drying and have been used in making ink. In the language and poetry of flowers, the Guelder Rose of Highbush-Cranberry signifies winter and age. You will find this wild ornamental favorite suitable for planting in a large shrub border and especially for attracting birds. Our thanks to Mary Angus MacDonald of [ingonish, who had the photograph of "Lit? tle Murdoch the Trapper" of Cape North, and loaned it to Cape Breton's Magazine. We would like to hear from other people who have beautiful old pictures of life on Cape Breton. Everybody knows someone in the Boston States. Cape Breton's Magazine would be a nice way to help a friend of Cape Breton keep in touch with the island all the year round. Please send the next 6 issues of Cape Breton's Magazine to: Name Address Enclosed is a check money order: 4.50 on Cape Breton 5.00 in Canada 6.00 in the United States Start with issue number one two. A gift from__ You don't have to use the coupons. If you would rather not tear the magazine, just send us a letter with a list of the people you want to receive Cape Breton's Magazine. Be sure to enclose either a check or money order. The address: Cape Breton's Magazine, Wreck Cove, Cape Breton, Nova Scotia. Cape Breton's Magazine/23