

Page 26 - The Sinking of the 'Caribou' Ferry

ISSUE : Issue 10

Published by Ronald Caplan on 1975/3/31

her. I threw her overboard. I thought it was the only chance. I saw one woman with a baby. She gave me the child. I passed it on to someone on a raft and she went back for another. She never reappeared. I never saw the baby again either. He said a number of the lifeboats were smashed in the explosion. "I got on part of one with 12 others • 5 men and 6 women. When we were picked up there were only 5 of us left. 4 of the women slid off the upturned shell -I- I A t't Travel Agency -"itfik' PURVES STREET, NORTH SYDNEY STEAMSHIP AIRLINE RAIL AND HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS 20 Spacious Rooms with Full Bath & Shower Sun Deck overlooks beautiful Canso Strait Color Television ' Oban Motel "' and Gift Shop Box 191, Pbrt Hastings, Nova Scotia Telephone 625-1113 OPEN ALL YEAR 'ROUND