Immediately after she hung up, the phone rang again. It was her uncle. He told her that her father died. Believe it or not. A Ghost Story by Gary Addicott This story took place in French Cove near St. Peter's. We have a summer property there. In the 18th century, an English ship came with money for soldiers. The French were nearby, so they hid all of the gold some? where near French Cove. When they went out into the open water, they were attacked by Pirates. (The Pi? rates) looked for the gold, but there was none, so they just burned the boat. Later in time, they found some of the gold in between the walls of one of the houses. They still don't know where the gold is. It could be sitting on our property. Before we bought the property in 1977, Mr. Twist had owned the property for quite a long while. About a year before we bought it, a couple bought it and moved out in just 9 months. We supected they were look? ing for either the 18th century gold, or Mr. Twist's money, because he never had much money at all. So they suspected he hid it somewhere. But where!
