know. Not that we're not enjoying those who are alive and that we can all be together but it's in the sense of those who are missing, too. And they are not forgotten. (This grandma? the one who kept the diary.) That's L. H. Chernin. He set up his own little dynasty, really, in Glace Bay. Here's a man who came as an immigrant with nothing who--actually, I think my Uncle Buddy (Moraff) was telling me that L. H.
