Audrey: I think that was about the only one that I remember. Ruth: But they went in The Ga? zette. They went weekly in the paper. It was the Glace Bay paper. And her poems would be printed in this paper. Audrey: She was exceptionally witty. She wasn't a cross woman or anything. Ruth: No. Never, never a cross word out of her. Nelson: Never heard her cross once in my life. When you'd go down there, she'd start reading a piece of poem. She'd get a piece of brown paper that was torn off an old bag: "And what do you think of this?" Well, I liked all her poetry. "That's wonderful."
