

Page 47 - Harry MacKenzie: Building the Causeway

ISSUE : Issue 25

Published by Ronald Caplan on 1980/6/1

The tide rushes through the narrowing gap. Clo? sure made with Balache Point at 8:30 PM, De? cember 10th, 1954~ Beyond ihe fexffook w whole other worlds of knowledge.. .fascinating realms, absolutely absorbing. Lilce a frog's smile.. .if frogs smile.. .an important question sometimes for a young mind. These days, we are better able to help your children and our students answer questions like that. We now have more, and better, r minds. >urces to educate young V' To all those who have contributed to that storehouse of resources.. .on behalf of the fertile minds that have helped I grow.. .ttiank you. Nova Scotia Department of Education Hon. Terence R.B. Donahoe Gerald J. McCarthy (47)