Miss Grace Menzie MISS GRACE MENZIE is a strathspey originally composed by William Marshall. This is basically how The MacLellan Trio plays it, with minor variation inspired by other Cape Breton fiddlers. These are two traditional Cape Breton raised bass violin tunes. The settings given include variation from Donald MacLellan, Angus Chisholm, Dave MacIsaac, and Mary Hughie MacDonald. I've never seen either of these tunes written in the old Scottish books, so there is the possibility they are Cape Breton composed.
