C'est comme ça qu'on apprend plus vite. Parce que les prières que j' savais par tchoeur, la j'les.... (Ronald LaBelle: Vous les voyiez par écrit.) Oui, c'est la meilleure manière pour apprendre, Les prières qu'on salt par tchoeur, la j'les, pouvait pas mal le de- viner. A 10 ans j'avais appris a lire fran- 9ais assez comment ben qu'on me demandait mon catechisme pis j'repondais. La soeur me demandait quand 9a venait a 1'heure des recess, ben a me demandait pour aider aux enfants a leur demander le catechisme. J'avais appris assez a lire fran9ais, pour demander le catechisme aux autres enfants de mon age. (Le catechisme la, 9a durait trois, quatre semaines?) Ca durait sept semaines. Y'a une difference a c'tte heure • The old people, the fishermen at night, when they were not too tired, they always came to our place, and they had all kinds of stories of. olden time, about ghost stor? ies. That was the most pastime. They told so much; I'd be so frightened, I couldn't listen to them. I'd run away; I didn't want to hear them. They would talk about seeing--they thought they had seen the dev? il. And it was all old tricks. Somebody would play tricks--they thought they had seen the devil. The only story I remember: one of the fish-ermen from Rocky Bay. He said, when his Cl/I-ni'ZX 'atz On i" Beaji.
