so I can move up on the provincial team. The top 3 on the team get to be on the re? lay team for the Canada Games. In about 2 more weeks I'm going to set a goal for my- self--3 miles in the night and 3 miles in the morning, plus my other training. (Do you ever dream about all this?) I have a few dreams, I guess. It's on my mind con? stantly. My girl friend's sick of hearing it. And every time I talk to her about it I say, "Oh, I'm sorry. I don't want to talk about it." She says, "No, that's o- kay." It's just that, I don't know--I live for it. That's why I live, for speed skat? ing.... In the nights, when I'm doing my homework, I'm doing my homework, but I'm thinking about speed skating. And once in awhile when I'm doing my homework, I'll go up and I'll take out my skates and I'll start fiddling with the blades or some? thing. Just to know that I'm looking at my speed skates. Then I'll put them back. And once in awhile I'll glance over at a pos? ter. I've got a few posters of Boucher in my room. When it comes to studying, I'll study. But it's on my mind a lot.
