The Trippers During a recent visit to John Alec and Sadie MacNeil in Frenchvale, Sadie jiggged frag? ments of the tune in a 2-part setting similar to the version recorded by Jerry Holland on his second LP. The 4-part (ABCB) arrangement given here is based on a home tape of the late Donald Angus Beaton of Mabou. Angus MacKay's setting (#130 in The Piper's Assistant. circa 1840, probably the first printed source) has a completely different 2nd turn ar? ranged in G major--a variation which is reflected as well in the jig called "The High? lander" in O'Neill's Music of Ireland (#857) and O'Neill's 1001 Gems (#117). Jig Col. Stockwell This march is found on a Paddy LeBlanc LP (currently out of print) which was recorded during the 'sixties. A couple of my musical friends. Tommy Basker and Gordon MacLean, consider this the most beautiful march ever made.
