wanted to know. But he spelled out the name--he might have done it the same way-- who took his money--he might have done it the same way. But it didn't seem like there was a key, to me, there. (And he was asking who took the $10?) Yeah, he found out. But he went and asked them for it, and they gave it back. (What would happen that would tell him?) The Bible would open on every letter till the name was spelled out. He said he'd start from A, so--after he got enough ini- Cedar House Bakery and Restaurant 674-2929 OPEN DAILY FOR BREAKFAST, LUNCH a DINNER bread • scones • oatcaltes • cookies • pies TRANS-CANADA HWY NEAR SEAL ISLAND BRIDGE tials he said, "That's enough." He went up and asked--it was a woman--for the money. She gave it to him. 'Cause she got scared, too, I guess, when she saw the Bible opening. Dad's mother used to do it. Dad was often telling me that. She'd take her Bible and she'd go upstairs--I've heard Mom talk about that. She'd take her Bible and go upstairs, if a boat didn't come in. She'd go upstairs with the Bible and she'd come back. She'd say, "Don't worry about them." There were no phones, anything, no ship- to- shore. She'd tell them where they were. She'd even tell them what harbour they were. If they were safe. (Using the Bible.) Yeah. (Did they ever use Bible for cures? Did it play any kind of a role if someone was sick or something like that?) Not--I've FOREST FIRE! Last year between April and October, 26 forest fires were reported in Cape Breton. Fortunately, fast action by Lands and Forests crews and volunteer firefighters put them out before they did much damage. Because even a small brush fire can get out of control and ignite nearby trees in seconds, early detection is essential.
