So I got back, and then I got--he got me to get ahold of my father, which I didn't want to do. Send me some money, you know, to get back to Canada, eh? So what we did.... See, it's easy to get in the States, see, and work if you want it, you know what I mean? So what I did, see. I'm on the row--I'm on the skids down there. So I went and I got a guy that was on the skids with me. He's got a social security card--an unemployment number. And I said to him, "Here's 10 bucks. I'll buy your social security card off you, see." For 10 bucks--that was big money. So he gave it to me.... "Listen. When I get a job, and I make some money, and I get out of the country, within 6 months time, or I quit my job--I'll give you the social security number back, card back, and you can go and collect unemployment." You understand what I mean? And that guy is a bum, see, and he never works. Street smart, see? So that's how I used to work it. So I went to work, and I got a few shifts. So then I went and I gave the guy the (social secur? ity) card, you know, the number back, see. He got unemployment. I took off out of the country.
