Agnes Poushay Watch will be kept for the bodies of the other two victims, as yet unaccounted for. Mate Alex MacKenzie and the eighteen year old donkeyman, Alex Wait. In the meantime the body of Capt. Gardiner is on its way to Halifax in Zinck's ambulance, while that of James MacAulay has been forwarded to Orangedale for interment. Taking his cows to pasture about seven o'clock this morning Allan MacDonald noticed an object lying on the shore and on going down to investigate found the remains of a man. Tattoo marks on an arm identified him as Captain Gardiner. Riverside Cleaners 1061 Kings Road SYDNEY Lowest Drycleaning Prices in Town! WE'RE PROUD TO SHARE... BOE 2W0 (902)787-2274 Nearby residents were notified and after the body was removed to a farm building, search was proceeded with along the shore and about 100 yards from the dory which the castaways of the Hurry On had succeeded in making their escape in, was found the body of Third Engineer MacAulay. Agnes Poushay, Sydney: The boy that was drowned that we knew (James F. MacAulay), he lived (at River Denys) about 18 miles from our home (at Marble Mountain). And we knew them well, we knew the family well. He was a third year engineering student. And as I understood, he was to have some practical experience to get his degree. And the man who owned the boat would be a relative by marriage of MacAulay. I'm not sure what the connection was.... (One person thought he was a boy friend of yours.) No, no. I knew him well and we did correspond. I think he did probably have a girl friend. It's just that we were friends and he did write me just before he went on this trip. He did say, "I'll bring you back a souvenir from Holland." But there had been a change in plans.... Sunday, Aug. 18 • 1 P.M. Featuring: The Barra MacNeils McGinty and MANY, MANY MORE!
