

Page 87 - Dr. Jack Yazer, Citizen

ISSUE : Issue 59

Published by Ronald Caplan on 1992/1/1

get up early in the morning," you know. I never let on. But I never went to that house again. I've had my lessons. (How do you work? You come to a person's home.) First thing I ask them if they want to buy. (Are you walking?) Oh, yeah. (At first there's no horse-and-wagon.) Oh, no, just walk. (So, you come to a door, and what do you do?) Well, "Would you like to buy something?" You know. It's the first question you ask them, "Like to buy something?" And they don't say, "No." Next thing we do is come on in. "Do you want to look at the goods?" Sometimes say, "No, but...." You'll show it to (them).
 Baking in a 17th century brick oven and original recipes are the secret to our superior quality international breads and rolls which are all preservative free ?? We warmly welcome you to visit us in Whitney Pier YOU DESERVE THE VERY BEST