A word from the wise: Be Boat Smart Smart boaters plan ahead. They know that a terrific boating season starts with more than just a new coat of wax. It means taking the time to make sure your boat is up to snuff from top to bottom. Breakdowns can quickly deteriorate into life-threatening situations. So keep the odds stacked in your favour by preparing your boat thoroughly carrying a complete set of safety equipment, and knowing how to use it. The Coast Guard can help you prepare, by providing a host of information to help maximize your safety and peace of mind. Just call our toll-free Boating Safety Information Hotline at 1 800 267-6687. Boating is fun...but be prepared. NATIONAL SAFE BOATING WEEK: JUNE 7 - 13, 1992
