near Thomas--old John McEvoy. he went to Neil's Harbour one time and he stayed a night with Ben. In Ben's shack in Neil's Harbour. And he said that he was a glad man to get out of there in the morning.... I heard my Uncle Stephen telling that. He said all night after they went to bed, Ben apparently was sleeping. But old Mr. Mc? Evoy said that there were people traipsing in and out, and banging the doors and coming in and going out the whole night. He said he didn't know what it was unless it was the devil that was going in and out all night. But he said old Ben slept away. It never bothered him at all. (Actual people...?) No. He said he couldn't see anybody. But he said the doors were banging open all night, peo? ple coming in. and he could hear them walk? ing around. in the house, and going out. And he said there was nobody to be seen, but he said it never bothered old Ben. TVust in our stars!  GREAT FOOD rORTH STAR INNI NORTH SYDNEY ,??t??-cc- • ??.:U'J*":' My'.
