Yarmouth, anyway. And if you said "pig," that was it. He wouldn't go out in the boat that day. Or he'd drive you out of the boat. Wasn't about to say "pig." But there was one boat down there--! knew the fellow right well. What was his name now? He was from Little Dover. And that's the name he had on his boat was "The Pig." So I don't think it made much difference. (Not to him.) Not to him. anyway! It wouldn't make any difference to me. (Were there some men who were much better TAYLOR'S m' DENTURE CLINIC "dentures I CONSTRUCTED, RELINED & REPAIRED J. B. (I wonder what makes the difference though. They all fish in the same water, don't they?) Pret? ty well. (They don't have territories.) No, no, we all travel over the same terri? tory here, pretty well. But some fellows know the bottom a little better than oth? ers, for their fish, that's all. Well, the codfishing now is nothing to it anyway, here. You hardly get any. It's only lob? ster fishing mostly, they do around here. And some crabfishing. (Did you used to get a lot more codfish?) Oh yes, you'd have the boat, you'd go out there and you'd come in--10- or 12-hundred alone. And now, if you were out there for 2 Discover...
