phan girls in Stanley billeted in one of my Chinese friends' homes. I had another friend of mine billeted in another, with his family of beautiful children. I can say now that frankly I was worried, with the soldiers directly in front of us, all over the hills. Anyway, they didn't know that when I was making my rounds that eve? ning, it was under constant fire from the snipers in the hills. I wasn't foolish, but I did realize that these people were depending on me. and I knew that I was do? ing not my own work, but the work of God, and He would protect me. He did, and is continuing to do so. "That night (Christmas Eve) it seemed that all Hell had let loose.... Early on Christmas morning they came in on us, or? dered us to stop our Masses and to come to the main hallway of the building, where they placed us on one side and the Chinese servants and coolies on the other. They began their search for soldiers and arms. Our stores were ransacked, our vestments trodden upon, and our sa? cred vessels desecrated. "A dying soldier wanted me to help him to the bath? room, and upon our return our guard, speaking with his fellow gendarme, came up to me, tore off my cas? sock, and there I W"'i-/ ' -'A" ' SO,MY FRIEVP, YOU TROUete OS ' k NO tONGER.WITH YOUR CITTLE TRUCK!
