and you get down to the end, well your gate is there to hold you. But if there's nothing there and you've got half a crate of fish in your net • that terrific pres? sure on your arms • you had to have a man • a good man • to catch that net. We got 2000 barrels that year. That was good fishing. The fish are wild this year. The water is very bright and low. And when they're running in small schools like that they are very wild. When they're running heavy you
