the wood floorboards till they were nearly white again. She would be sent down time after time as was needed to help out her uncle and his wife. Annie had a lot of friends and enjoyed visiting with her friends. The reserve was not large but walking from house to house at a great distance from one another often required people to find a place to sleep for the night and then head home in the morning. She often visited and slept over at her friend's house. Young girls often did silly fun things. One night after Maltikle'wimk Vacation in Louisbourg! They then went to bed and, as was required, they could not speak to each other until morning when they would tell their dreams. Their dream should foretell who they would marry and would prophesize the life they would have by the man who would give them a drink and by the kind of cup used to give her a drink. If it was a cup of fine china they would have a good prosperous life. If the cup was broken or chipped, they would lead a troubled, poor life. Leste'l wanted to play, not sleep, but the girls kicked her to tell her to go to sleep since they were not allowed to talk. In the Take Route 22 Out of Sydney BAR & GRILL LTD. 'Tn'f.S?'"
