The barn wouldn't hold them. So we shot some of them in the woods--we never took them home. Because there was no room in the barn for them. They were worth nothing. I (once) sent 9 calves down to a butcher in Sydney--Billy MacDonald. And he sent me back $2, for the 9 calves! And I had a team of horses working. And I broke the hame straps. I needed new hame straps--and they were $1 apiece. So I sold 9 calves for to buy two hame straps! Alfred laughs. I sup Vacation in Louisbourg! 1'1 'c. So, it was a poor outlook. (Well, if you were looking to make a living, to put something away....) Yes, yes .... But wait. You know, even now, though, there's some fellows getting $70 a box for oysters. (Two boxes) wouldn't be too bad for half a cow--$140. You see? It wouldn't be enough, though, the price of beef today. My mother died in young. And my fa? ther lived on quite awhile af? ter that. There was quite a dif? ference, you know. There was no M.S.I, then. You were respon? sible for your parents if they weren't able to work. Today, the young fellows go to live off their parents, because they're getting the pension. They can while around the country drinking and 1929.
