

Page 72 - 10 Years! The Story of The Cape Breton Summertime Review

ISSUE : Issue 68

Published by Ronald Caplan on 1995/6/1

Do you mind if I call you Manning?) Yeah, Martin's--he's pretty out there.... Sometimes material comes through--well, when we used to play as the Fabulous Door? knobs, we would play the bars. (.The Fabu? lous Doorknobs was a singing group of May? nard, Max, Luke Wintermans and Kenzie MacNeil.) And between every song, we would fill time. Sometimes Max and I would get on a roll. And maybe the introduction to the song would be longer than the song it? self- -our performance was the improvisa- tional stuff between songs. And now and then, a line would come out that would work. Like Martin's line about trying to get a job, and saying that, "Most of the jobs they got are non-smoking jobs, though, eh? I was up to two packs a day. So I got two of them patches. But I couldn't see a thing." Well, that happened in a fire hall in Dominion. Not as Martin Seaside Whale & Nature Cruises Whales, eagles, seabirds and wildlife along the coastline of Cape Bre? ton Highlands National Park • the perfect excursion for both the profes? sional and amateur photographer. Magnificent vistas of the coast from the water provide you with a very different view of Cape Breton Island. Three Hour Guided Cruise '