his land alongside hers). Only reason was to spoil Mrs. Corson's settlement, only possible reason. The second Mrs. Corson was still alive. I negotiated with her for Middle Head. Corson was very highly regarded by the people of Ingonish and his widow was despised. I had very interesting correspondence negotiating with her. You see, the land was expropriated and notices were published asking landowners to file claims for their properties. So when I went in I had what a person wanted for their property. Not in every case. But Mrs. Corson had filed a claim for $125,000. In the 1930's that was a lot of money. And I offered her $60,000 at some period. They owned Middle Head and they owned quite a bit of land that is now in the golf course. They had a very valuable property. But Mr. Corson had an American friend. Dr. Jerry Morgan, who owned quite a block of land beyond the Corson property. Dr. Morgan filed a claim for $50,000 for his property. Well, I didn't want to settle with either of them while I was dealing with the local people. So, to make Dr. Morgan cross and make sure he wouldn't settle I offered him $450 for his land. Now after Mr. Corson's death, Mrs. Corson and Dr. Morgan got in a dispute over-- whether it was the boundary line or the ownership of this lot, I don't know. But they went to court. And they went from court to court, they took the case right to the Supreme Court of Canada. They must both have spent tens of thousands of dollars in lawyer and court costs. Now I had a file with Dr. Morgan about that thick, writing back and forth. To make a long story short, he settled for $450. Now, the only possible explanation would be that he felt making that claim it would injure Mrs. Corson's claim. Well, Mrs. Corson never would settle and she would have one lawyer after another, and never the same lawyer twice. But shortly after settlement had been made with Dr. Morgan, Mrs. Corson had a lawyer from New York arrive in Halifax. (They went to) J. H. MacQuarrie, he was Attorney General and Minister of Lands and Forests, so they didn't come to me--they went right to MacQuarrie to discuss settlement.
