patient!" And a wonderful man, I know. AUGUST 16,1991 Doctor Tompkins told Henry, "No more transfusions"--the veins are all collapsed and the last blood supply went into his tissues, causing the red colour to his skin and small blisters. Henry is very de? pressed- -what ' s next? How can they give him blood now--is this the end for Henry? I try not to dwell on it but I feel sick. AUGUST 17,1991 Henry was stable when I got to the hospi? tal. Dr. Brennan told him that Dr. Irvine is going to put a permanent shunt in his shoulder, a direct line to the blood stream, so that there will be no more pok? ing him with needles. Till this operation is performed, Henry isn't allowed home. AUGUST 18,1991 Henry about the same. He wants to get this shunt put into place, he's tired of lying in hospital (6 weeks). AUGUST 19,1991 Very depressed, he's angry with the doc? tors because they are not answering any of his questions. How can they, when there is nothing left for them to say, except that he is dying?
