The Pipes, A Journey of Discovery into the World of the Bagpipes! A NEW VIDEO BY PETER MURPHY 90-minute video • $29.95 The Pipes are Calling, f NEW BAGPIPE) VIDEO EVEN IF YOU THINK YOU HATE BAGPIPES, THIS VIDEO WILL BRIGHTEN YOUR LIFE! The sound, the landscape and colour • visits with people who play and make pipes in Canada, Ireland, Scotland and France • the combined music of over 400 pipers and hurdy gurdy players, plus staggering individual performances • then back to the New World to explore the rich piping traditions of Eastern Canada, the historic warpipes, and the community dance piper tradition of Cape Breton. Performers include Cape Breton's Alex Currie and Barry Shears, Ireland's Finbar Furey and Robert Amyofs bagpipe group from France. Plus an alternative Pipers Convention in the U.S.A. and the bagpipes of Celtic Rock. This lively, entertaining docu-travelogue is an amazing and tender video experience, laced with fascinating people, unusual information, humour, rich scenery, and great music! There is artistry in Peter Murphy's presentation, there is the devotion and enthusiasm of the players, there are the gorgeous landscapes • and there is history and the wonderful music of the pipes. For all of us, through this video, Cape Breton piping makes a whole world of sense. FIDDLERS ON THIS VIDEO: Buddy MacMaster • Theresa MacLellan Brenda Stubbert • Robert Stubbert Jerry Holland • Jackie Dunn • Jeffrey Gosse' Sandy MacIntyre • Sheila Cameron CARRYING ON THE TRADITIONS is a good rich sampling of Cape Breton Fiddling today • to watch or simply listen to. Over and over. This video is aimed at the fiddler and the fiddle fanatic. If you want the music and how individual musicians make it, this video is definitely for you. There is very little Cape Breton scenery • it's the musicians performing seated in one spot • but you'll get plenty of music, music, music. How each holds the violin and the bow, from the seated dancing of Rodney MacDonald, to the barely perceptible movements of Robert Stubbert, to Theresa MacLellan's authority and grace • this is what the video provides. No one should miss Brenda Stubbert's daughter Tracey's absolutely marvelous stepdancing. Produced by Fiddler Magazine, this package includes a very good booklet with: an article by Sandy MacIntyre on "Fiddling, Cape Breton Style," an analysis by Kate Dunlay of the fiddlers' individual playing styles, little biographies of each performer, a list of more books and recordings by and about the performers • and of course, a complete list of all the tunes in the order they are played. 90-minute video $49.95 Celebrating 71 Years Cape Breton's MAGAZINE ' TWENTY-FIVE YEARS of Cape Breton's Magazine is a success for all of us.
