Published by Ronald Caplan on 1978/12/1

Our Cover Photo is of Sandy Kenny Morrison of Wreck Cove. In Issue 19, we offered Rita Joe's telling of the Micmac legend of Mud-Lane. She has asked us to add that the basic story came to her from the late Mrs. Victor Jeddore of Eskasoni. In Issue 20, we did not indicate the publishers of books we reviewed. Silver Donald Cameron's THE EDUCATION OF EVERETT RICHARDSON was published by McClelland and Stewart, Toronto; Dawn Eraser's ECHOES FROM LABOUR'S WARS was published by New Hogtown Press, 12 Hart House Circle, Univ. of Toronto. Both books are available in island bookstores. Also in Issue 20, we failed to give both credit and thanks to the Beaton Institute, College of Cape Breton, for photos of ferries in the Strait of Canso, and to the Public Archives of Nova Scotia, Halifax, for supplying xerox copies from their original letters of Alexander Munro of Boul-arderie. Cape Breton's Magazine is a gift that lasts. Send Gift Subscriptions and Collectors' Editions of the magazine to your friends and relatives. We'll do the mailing for you. And we'll also pay the postage to any place in the world. Edited & Published by Ronald Caplan with the help of Bonnie Thompson
