

Page 28 - This Was Marble Mountain

ISSUE : Issue 22

Published by Ronald Caplan on 1979/6/1

1" 5 - ." '0' ' For help in preparing this article (supplying information and/or photos) our thanks to Rudi Maga, Mrs. Mountain Jessie M. MacLean, Allister MacPhail and Lawrence " Campbell; the Beaton Institute, Sydney; the Deny Mu? seum, St. Peters; and the Marble Mountain Museum. Upper left; Nicholas J. Brown, P.E.I., who discovered dolomite and limestone on North Mountain in 1866. Quarrying began in 1869. Workers and school children. Lower right; A building in Inver-Halifax made of Marble from Marble Hill and adjacent Dundee Golf Course Located on a particularly beautiful site overlooking the Bras d'Or Lake, Dundee Golf Course is a new professionally designed nine hole public golf course. DUNDEE GOLF COURSE AND COTTAGES are located in Dundee, Cape Breton, just 17 miles East of Port Hawkesbury. Forty New Fully Equipped Housekeeping Cottages One & Two Bedroom Units [Can be Combined] Dining Room - Lounge Natural Play Area