

Page 6 - Advert: Explore Western Cape Breton Inverness County

ISSUE : Issue 23

Published by Ronald Caplan on 1979/8/1

Explore Western Cape Breton Inverness County MEAT COVE PLEASANT BAY CHETICAMP Beautiful sandy beaches and breath? taking coastal cliffs invite you to take the Ceilidh Trail, the scenic route to the Northern Highlands. Dig clams in Nova Scotia's warmest waters or plan an inland day trip* to Marble Mountain, Whycocomagh or Lake Ainslie. MARGA Launch a canoe in the South? west Margaree River or gaze out to sea from magnificent Broad Cove. Golf or fish in the Margarees where MABOU the historic Cabot Trail joins the Ceilidh Trail. PORT HOOD Then on to Pleasant Bay and highland scenery second to none. Make this summer vacation one you will remember. Make it a vacation on the Western Shore and the Lakes of Inverness County. JUDIQUÉ PORT HASTINGS PORT HAWKESBURY
*Six Day-trips are available in Inverness County. Check with the Tourist Office for a descriptive brochure. VERNESSE, "Our beaches have the warmest waters, our people have the kindest hearts." Prepared by the Tourist Division of the Municipality of Inverness County. Photo from Owen Fitzgerald's book, CAPE BRETON.